

THREE REASONS TO CONTRIBUTE

1. Our world desperately needs Christian Leaders.

All of MSCC’s degree programs prepare young people to lead through Christian service.

2. Christian leaders should be able to graduate with little or no debt.

Those who go into full-time Christian service will seldom make salaries large enough to repay thousands of dollars of student loans. MSCC strives to fund its program without passing on the bulk of the cost to the students.

3. MSCC is innovative in its approach to preparing Christian Leaders.

Mid-South Christian College’s program is a hands-on, action learning program where the students will actually establish a new church plant before they graduate. MSCC is a bi-lingual, multi-cultural Bible college reaching out to today’s global culture.

Would you join the effort, too?

For $20 (or more) a month you could help a deserving young person study at MSCC and graduate debt free!
